 ALEXA.GAZETTE & VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

(FOR THE COUNTRY) Published Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays At five dollars per annum. Pransient advertisements inserted at $1.00 per square, (eight lines or less) for first insertion,

THE EPISCOPAL COUNCIL.—The impression has very generally obtained that the Council of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, which meets at Alexandria on the 17th of this month, will proceed to elect an Assistant Bishop to supply the vacancy occasioned by the death of Bishop Johns, and the consequent advancement of Assistant Bishop Whittle. From the best authority at 'our command, it would seem that this impression is an erroneous one, as it does not come within the prerogative of the Council to take such action under the canon regulating the subject. Section 1 of cannon 15, that in question, reads: "When a Bishop of a Diocese is unable, by reason of old age or other permanent cause of infirmity, or by reason of the extent of his Diocese, to discharge his Episcopal duties, an Assistant Bishop may be elected by and for the said Diocese, who shall, in all cases, succeed the Bishop in case of surviving him; provided that before the election of an Assistant Bishop. for the reason of extent of Diocese, the consent of the General Convention, or during the recess thereof, the consent of a majority of the Bishops and of the several standing committees, must be had and obtained.'

As the government of the Diocese of Virginia is vested now, it is considered that the above has application, and we have been given to understand that no effort has been made to obtain the consent of the majority of the Bish ops and the Standing Committees, which is necessary to an election. It is also held by some that this consent can only be obtained by action of the Council, which construction would throw the election into that body in 1877.

The Council however, in order to meet the difficulty of extent of Dioc se will probably take steps fully as important as the election of an Assistant Bishop. West Virginia some time since petitioned to be set apart as a separate Diocese, and it is not unlikely that this petition will now be granted. The question, we are informed, is being mooted among the clergy, and A West Virginia has met with decided favor. Diocese, unless it be made a Missionary Diocese, will absorb several counties east of the Alleghany, and will render an Assistant Bishop unuecessary, at least, for the present. - Rich.

THE WAR IN CUBA .- The conflict waxes fiercer in the "Ever Faithful Isle," and the might of Spain is hurled in vain against the mountain and forest defended Cuban patriots, who are steadily approaching Havana and pushing their enemies off or under the soil of Cuba. After a struggle that has now lasted over seven years we find the area of Spanish domination on the island growing gradually smaller every year, and the chances of a final suppression of the revolution absolutely nil. The soil seems to swallow the enemies of Cuba, for army after army has marched eastward into these dense forests and rugged defiles, but has never returned; for even disease is patriotic in Cuba, and yellow fever and small-pox mow down the columns of Spain as effectually as the bullet and machete of the Cuban insurgents. The Spanish troops at present engaged in the Cuban war are mostly young boys, drafted under the conscription laws that were in force during the civil war in the old country. The majority of these poor young fellows have scarcely attained the age of twenty years, and, being brought direct from a temperate into a tropical climate and exposed to all the hardships of a guerilla war fare, they speedily succumb to the terrible forms of disease incidental to a torpical campaign. It is a fact, and one pregnant of fearful meaning, that the Spanish reinforcements for Cuba rarely bring arms with them. They are furnished with weapons from the ranks of their dead predecessors, and in turn surrender the oft transferred rifle to death and their successors. Thus the awful sacrifice of the young life of Spain continues to satisfy the cupidity, vanity, and we might add ignorance, of the Peninsular Government and its agents in Cuba. When the war will cease will only be determined by failure of Spain to furnish victims .- New York

ONE occasionally comes across such touching tragedies in the daily papers as the following from a Munich letter to a Cincinnati paper: One of the saddest was the case of a mechanic, who had been some time out of work, and when reduced to his last "lechser" (about six cents), instead of investing it in bread, staked it on a lottery ticket. As he did not return home on Saturday night, his wife was in a fever of anxiety and fear lest, in his desperation, he had destroyed himself. However, bright and early on Sunday morning he returned, radiant in a new suit of clothes, with hands and arms full of redeemed household articles, and exclaimed, "We are say d; I have won a prize." The poor woman gazed at him speechless, unable to realize the "glad tidings;" but the reaction was too great. She sank op the floor, and although medical assistance was promptly procured, her spirit had fled, and the widower and four little orphans were plunged into greater misery than that from which they had been rescued.

Danbury News :- "A very flashily dressed young wiss was chatting with a couple of young men in front of the Post Office yesterday afternoon, when an old woman, rather plainly dressed, came along. The young miss suddenly turned her back toward her, but the old woman recognized her. 'Ah, is that you, Maggie? exclaimed the elderly party. 'And so your mother has got work again, has she? Well, I'm glad to hear it.' This unselfish burst of congratulation caused the young miss to flush to the roots of her hair.'

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE. I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT, of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Oil, which for tin roots, barns, stables, fences, &c., will be tound very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market For brick walls with a northern exposure it will act as a preventive to dampness. For iron it makes a solid and lasting coating impervious to moisure and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This Paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it Price, single gallon, 75c. 10 gallons (5c per gal. 1 bbl, or 40 gallons, 60c per gal.
